Judy,

I saw your message about the GOSS family. This may be a long shot on the GOSS lineage, but my uncle James Kight married into the Goss family in SC.

His father in-law, Mr. Goss, died a few years ago, but he owned several thousand acres near Aiken, SC. This land has been passed down through the family for years and we still hunt on it. You may be able to write him and he can ask his wife and mother in law if they have any records on this lineage. His address is:
James Kight
125 Woodland Drive
Lexington, SC 29072

Tell him that you got his name from his nephew Jimbo Blackstone.

Good Luck,

Jim Blackstone

Hello All,

I saw a referral to this address for the Orangeburgh German/Swiss Genealogical Society.

My Swiss/German Frederick GOSS/GAUSS came to North Carolina in the 1730's - 40's - 50's, don't know the exact date. He was supposedly born in Switzerland in 1738, married Isabella Rickard, d of Jacob Rickard in Rowan Co., NC 1761.

Would he or she fit into the parameters of your group?

If so, may I subscribe? How?

Thanks for any help.

I have one early Goss record (1750) in Orangeburgh and a family of Gossling. Will send in a few days.

You are now subscribed to the Orangeburgh e-mail list. It does not make you a member of the Orangeburgh German-Swiss Society but only tries to supplement their great Newsletter. I will forward you a FAQ. Also, could you tell us a little more about some of your German-Swiss families, time

frame, your snail-mail address, etc.

Please send all messages (and replies) to: nn105474@midnet.sc.edu

All serious minded researchers of early Orangeburgh German-Swiss families are welcomed to join this list. Thank you for your interest.

Gene
